About Us:

Founded in 1986, Family Promise of Bergen County, formerly the Interreligious Fellowship for the Homeless, is a not-for-profit, 501 (c) (3) New Jersey corporation. FPBC sponsors sheltering programs designed to shepherd working families with children through temporary periods of homelessness while providing them with services, counseling and referrals as they navigate the road to self-sufficiency. Additionally, 1800+ volunteers and 100 congregations, student groups, civic organizations and corporations participate in the Walk-In-Dinner Program by purchasing, preparing and serving approximately 45,000 meals annually.
